

Survey results

About half of the attributes were “Pulmonologists”.

Approximately 70% of pulmonologists answered that they were “satisfied”.

- Touch panel operation is new
 - It was interesting
 - Comparison was easy to understand
 - I learned something
 - Because the sound was easy to hear
 - Motivated
 - I can't listen well.
 - There are difficult cases, but it is important
 - Useful for education
 - It was a practical version
 - Because I got it right
 - Sound source is not good
 - Good for real education
 - Learn from young people
 - Similar audio can be shared
 - Unprecedented method
 - It's good because using a stethoscope gives you a real sense of tension.
 - Interesting as if we were in contact with an actual patient
 - Can be checked by two people
 - the use of a stethoscope and the fact that I can do it while being instructed
 - Unprecedented content
 - Content that has never been experienced
 - Where a stethoscope is used
 - New learning method
 - Booth noise disturbs
 - Very useful for education
 - It was real
- I have never heard a stethoscope so far.
- Lack of opportunities like this